

Award-Winning Nature Photographs Exhibit

Sponsored by York Audubon Society and Susquehanna Heritage

Displayed at Columbia Crossing River Trails Center, Columbia, PA

Roadshow of 2016's Best Avian Photography Coming to Central PA

Selected from over 7,000 entries—submitted from all 50 states, DC, and Canada—the winning photos were published in the May-June 2016

Osprey
Dick Dickinson/Professional Winner/2016 Audubon Photography Awards

issue of Audubon magazine. A panel of five judges had the daunting task of sifting through the stunning images and grading them based on technical quality, originality, and artistic merit.

Visit the Columbia Crossing River Trails center, under the Rte. 462 Bridge in Columbia, Lancaster County, PA, between March 24, 2017 and April 13, 2017, to walk among the winning bird photographs from this year's Audubon Photography Awards and learn more about your local birdlife. The center is open Wednesday through Saturday 10AM to 4PM, and Sunday noon to 4PM.

Hope to see you at the exhibit!